PART IV

A. Additional Documentation and Information

The fact that an applicant may meet NASDAQ's numerical guidelines does not necessarily mean that its application will be approved. In connection with the review of any application, and as set forth in the NASDAQ Marketplace Rules, NASDAQ reserves the right to request additional information or documentation, public or non-public, deemed necessary to make a determination regarding a security's qualification for initial inclusion, including but not limited to, any material provided to or received from the Securities and Exchange Commission or other regulatory authority.

Please provide the following information:

Independent Directors and Audit Committee

1. Verification and documentation that the company meets the Independent Director and Audit Committee requirements for listing on The NASDAQ National Market[®], as set forth in the NASDAQ Marketplace Rules.
2. A list of all independent directors.
3. A copy of the company's formal written charter, outlining the responsibilities of the company's Audit Committee.

Regulatory Proceedings/Litigation

1. A detailed description of all inquiries, investigations, lawsuits, litigation, arbitration, hearings, or any other legal or administrative proceedings, which involve or involved the company, its predecessors, subsidiaries and past and present officers, directors, and five percent or greater shareholders: (a) initiated, conducted or being conducted by any federal or state regulatory, civil or criminal agency (including but not limited to the SEC, NASD, state securities regulators, the Commodities Futures Trading Commission, Department of Justice, state bar associations, state boards of accountancy, or any foreign regulatory, civil or criminal authority); (b) in which claims were asserted under federal and/or state securities, tax or bankruptcy laws; or (c) in which claims were asserted otherwise alleging fraud, deceit or misrepresentation and seeking damages in excess of $50,000.
2. In connection with any such proceedings, copies of all court and administrative filings and papers which reflect the substance of the allegations, the final disposition of any such proceedings and the sanctions imposed, including but not limited to, complaints, indictments, opinions, orders, final judgments, letters of censure, consents, undertakings, and SEC formal orders of investigation.

Please note that there is no past limitation on the time frame covered by these requests and that these requests are ongoing. The company should update Staff promptly of any and all material developments related to the matters identified in response to these requests.

Other

1. A copy of the company's by-laws evidencing compliance with NASDAQ's quorum requirement of at least 33 1/3 percent of the outstanding shares of the company's securities.
2. A list of any and all bridge financings, shelf registrations, Regulation S offerings, or private placements consummated within the prior six months. Describe the transactions in detail (i.e. date, price per share, discount, terms of conversion, the investors and their relationship to the company or other participants in the transactions), including the terms and conditions of any resale restrictions.

B. Affirmation
